Executive Summary

Dr. Jerry Johnston is an evangelist, pastor, university vice president, author, church-planter, television host, producer and director of documentaries and TV specials, a fundraiser for Christian causes, pastoral coach, and proud grandfather. Since Jerry first began preaching in 1974, he has spoken in more than 1,200 churches throughout North America and the world, and captivated youth on over 2,500 public school campuses by addressing vital issues. More than 125,000 recorded salvation decisions have been made in his revivals and evangelistic crusades.

Dr. Johnston has widespread media experience, having appeared on scores of major TV shows, and produced documentaries for Word Publishing, which have been distributed to thousands of churches. Jerry is passionate about training Christian leaders, has served as a church founder, and built a mega-church. Jerry has the spiritual gifts of faith, leadership, evangelism, teaching and discernment.

His wife, Dr. Cristie Jo Johnston, is an effective teacher of God's Word who has broad appeal to both men and women. Christie was asked by Shirley Dobson to speak at the National Day of Prayer in Washington, DC. The Johnstons have extensive contacts and fundraising experience with evangelicals and donors of all denominations throughout the US and Canada.

Career Highlights

Vice President, HBU Department of Innovation & Strategic Marketing

- Led the communications team at HBU (HBU.edu) to raise the University’s visibility and recruitment to a national level. Restructured the communication division with a 21st-century digital strategy.
- As editor of The Pillars magazine, changed the publication from a biannual publication to a quarterly, 60-page magazine.
- Collaborated in the design and creation of new digital income revenue stream for HBU. Participated in the HBU Online Task Force with consultant Dr. Ron Godwin. Collaborated in the design of an Online Business Plan for HBU projecting $42 million in profit revenue after 10 years, with an additional nearly 10,000 enrolled online HBU students. Integrally involved with the HBU Online Task Force, chaired Fundraising Team for HBU Online, and was responsible to raise $5 million in designated monies to launch HBU Online’s expansion.

Director of The Christian Thinkers Society

- Designed the launch and execution of The Christian Thinkers Society, Inc. (www.christianthinkers.com), which features the apologetic ministry of Dr. Jeremiah Johnston and its international publishing, conference, partnerships, certificate program(s), and global strategy. The mission of Christian Thinkers Society is to teach Christians to become thinkers and thinkers to Become Christians.
- Assisted in the exclusive, academic partnership of The Christian Thinkers Society as a resident institute of the Houston Baptist University. Assisted in the publishing partnership of author Dr. Jeremiah Johnston with LifeWay Christian Publishing, and in the creation of a Bible study kit entitled, "Unanswered." Also facilitated the marketing plan for "Unimaginable" with Bethany House Publishers.
- Set up both national and international Christian Thinkers Society conferences which feature Dr. Jeremiah Johnston translating profound apologetic truth into laymen's language to strengthen the local church and to evangelize the lost.

TV Host & Documentarian, Crossroads Christian Communications

- Served as an independent contractor and host of "100 Huntley Street" TV Show based in Toronto, and airing daily on the Global Television network with one million viewers per week. Interviewed guests such as Rick Warren, Dr. David Jeremiah, Dr. John Hagee, Philip Yancey, quarterback Jim Kelly, and many other international Christian leaders.
- Directed multiple television crews in the filming of five documentary television specials that aired on various television networks globally, and were distributed to thousands of churches and schools. Interviewed leading experts, as well as numerous people impacted by various spiritual issues across America.
- As a TV host, Dr. Jerry Johnston set fundraising records for Crossroads Christian Communications (www.crossroads.ca) by leading their TV telethons and recruiting monthly donor support. Dr. Johnston designed and wrote two important books, "Why They Die: Curing the Death Wish in Our Kids," and "Christian & Demons" (Crossroads Publishing). He produced six TV documentaries including, "Inside Teenage Suicide," "Battling the Darkness," and "The Power of Media: The Sexualization of our Youth." These programs supported the success of the telethons in new monthly engagement and large-scale donor cultivation and support.

Church Planter & Pastor of First Family Church

- Planted an innovative, biblical church in his hometown of Overland Park, Kansas. First Family Church began with 500 people on the first Sunday, and grew to 4,200 members in 11 years. Dr. Johnston raised $59 million in 11 years, and built a 140,000-square-foot campus on 51 acres.
- Dr. Johnston championed the Kansas Marriage Amendment at the request of Pastor Joe Wright of Central Christian Church in Wichita, Kansas, and incurred the retaliation of repeated attacks by the Kansas City Star, which dispatched a full-time investigative journalist on him, his family, and printed numerous libelous stories which launched an investigation by the Kansas Department of Consumer Protection, and two years of immense stress and trial. Dr. Jay Sekulow, president of the American Center of Law & Justice, led a team of lawyers at the request of the Board of Elders of First Family Church. The team was led by board chairman, the Honorable Judge Robert Ulrich; Dr. Johnston and the church were fully exonerated. Dr. Jay Sekulow stated in October of 2009 in a live telecast service at First Family Church that he had never witnessed a more politically motivated witch hunt in his 30 years of practicing law and defending Christian freedom in the United States. For a complete description and associated appendices, please read chapter one of Dr. Johnston's doctoral dissertation:

<http://scholar.acadiau.ca/islandora/object/theses:234>

- Dr. Johnston founded and operated a publishing and events management organization engaged in marketing and producing events, services and products that support ministries, educational, and corporate presentations, programs, and involvement. Provided leadership and direction to the development and production of Jerry Johnston Events & Publishing International to businesses seeking motivational, leadership, and successful development presentations nationwide.
- In conjunction with Cristie Jo Johnston, developed and presented entertaining and problem-solving seminars and retreats that addressed issues of marriage and parenting. These included two-day marriage enrichment retreats that attracted approximately 2,000 attendees annually. Other topics were parenting survival seminars, leadership development and dream development.
- Oversaw the development, marketing, and production of a wide range of full-service one to four-day Jerry Johnston Family Events with timely and relevant message topics and full event management services. Services included scheduling, traffic control, counselor training, full media packets, printing, promotion, print and advertising material creation, recorded radio advertisements and video clips, volunteer coordination, meals, cleaning, ushers, financing, reservations and parking.
- Developed, marketed, and presented the Life School Assembly Program given to schools, PTA groups, 4-H Clubs, FFA, FHA, high school leadership conferences, colleges, universities and civic organizations. Developed sponsoring partnerships with corporations such as Coca-Cola, McDonald's and Domino's Pizza that supported Life School Assembly programs.
- Created and presented presentations that addressed a wide range of motivational issues and concerns for corporations, conventions, military, government and personal improvement seminars.
- Served as chaplain of the Overland Park Police Department.

Founder & Evangelist of Jerry Johnston Ministries Association

- Averaged 22 mass crusades per year in which thousands of people from all walks of life were reached with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. More than 18,000 people received Christ as Savior during a two-year span. Articles appeared in newspapers throughout North America. The year 1979 was filled with "Capture America" rallies and crusades in churches all across America.
- In 1980 and 1981, the weekly television program, "Capture America with Jerry Johnston," began airing in the Midwest. Dr. Johnston Initiated an outreach of the ministry through the "Life School Assembly." This riveting, informative lecture on drug and alcohol abuse captured students' attention, and was praised by even the most skeptical school administrators. He toured more than 30 Texas cities and conducted citywide impact crusades in 13 locations throughout the nation. He conducted a month-long crusade emphasis in northern California.

- From 1982 to 1983, conducted rallies in 100 cities. Spoke to the nation on the "Old Time Gospel Hour" television program. There were 60 crusades conducted in this time period. Scores of invitations from pastors across America were received at the ministry headquarters. The ministry launched its first conference on evangelism in Kansas City, with national Christian leaders joining as speakers.
- In 1984, the crusade at the Akron Baptist Temple closed with 8,400 in attendance, and with 1,200 salvation decisions for the week. The "Life" Kansas City crusade closed with 12,000 in attendance at Municipal Auditorium, and 951 decisions were recorded for Christ in one night.
- The ministry produced a dynamic video, "Decisions and Consequences," taped at the Kentucky State Penitentiary, which closed with Jerry preaching strapped in an electric chair.
- At the invitation of the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association, spoke to evangelists on "How to Prepare and Deliver an Evangelistic Sermon" at the historic North American Conference for Itinerant Evangelists in Louisville, Kentucky.
- Appeared on 101 radio interviews coast-to-coast. Spoke to 14,000 pastors at the Southern Baptist Convention's Pastor's Conference and the SBC Evangelists in St. Louis, Missouri. In 1984 and 1985, the ministry and outreach gained media attention and acclaim. In virtually every city, television, radio, and newspaper reporters covered the unique impact on the cities visited.
- In 1986 and 1987, spoke to hundreds of thousands of students in the public schools. Churches were filled to capacity and experienced overflow attendance as the crusades related to the pressing needs of the unchurched community. At the invitation of Billy Graham Associate Evangelist, Dr. John Wesley White, spoke to international evangelists gathered in Amsterdam, Holland, in 1986.
- In 1987, the ministry purchased a new headquarters building of 6,000 square feet in the Kansas City suburb of Lenexa. The Jerry Johnston Association Conference on Evangelism drew 4,000 people to the Municipal Auditorium in Kansas City, Missouri. During the same year, his first book, "Why Suicide?" (Thomas Nelson Publishers), launched with more than 30,000 hardcover copies being sold.
- Spoke at the Billy Graham School of Evangelism in conjunction with Rev. Graham's Crusade at Mile High Stadium. Spoke at the Billy Graham School of Evangelism on the campus of Wheaton College in Wheaton, Illinois in 1987.
- The ministry continued to grow during 1988 through 1989. Conducted the "Diamond Year" crusade for the Peoples Church of Toronto, Canada, and spoke to 19 Toronto high schools in five days with rallies at Massey Hall and the Toronto Convention Centre. All of the Toronto media outlets interviewed the evangelist, including "100 Huntley Street." The second book, "Going All the Way: The Real World of Teens and Sex" (Word Publishing), launched appearances on the "700 Club" and scores of other television and radio shows.
- In 1989, the blockbuster book, "The Edge of Evil: The Rise of Satanism in North America," sold out of its first printing in one week. Later, more than 100,000 copies were sold. Visited 89 cities in one-night "Edge of Evil" rallies, exposing the occult and spiritual darkness. Appeared on CNN's "Crossfire," "Sonya Live in LA," "AM in Los Angeles," "The Tom Snyder Show," "LA in the Morning," "AM Philadelphia," Boston's "People Are Talking," and scores of other shows.

- Conducted a five-day television crusade on the "100 Huntley Street" show in Toronto, which is aired in every Canadian city coast-to-coast and viewed by 1.3 million people. In 1992 through 1993, the ministry began production and distribution of timely videos for churches and organizations distributed internationally by Word publishers. "AIDS Among Teens," "Kids and Gangs," "The Cutting Edge," "Life Exposé," and "Commitment: It's Time to Make Up Your Mind," are a few of the many popular videos produced. Books authored by Dr. Johnston and released by Zondervan Publishing, include, "Who's Listening: What Our Kids Are Trying to Tell Us," and "Inspire Your Kids to Greatness."
- The ministry was expanded by the launch of Jerry Johnston Family Crusades: Evangelistic Crusades Designed for Every Member of the Family. The response from premier churches of all denominations across North America was overwhelming.
- Spoke at the National Religious Broadcasters Convention in Washington, DC, the National Convention for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes in Indianapolis, and the Future Farmers of America National Convention in Kansas City. Held a base-wide crusade at the US Military Installation in Manheim, Germany. Visited with evangelical leaders in London, England regarding future evangelistic ministry in the United Kingdom.

Associate Evangelist to Dr. Jerry Falwell at Thomas Road Baptist Church

- Featured on Dr. Jerry Falwell's "Old Time Gospel Hour" television program on 390 TV stations, and preached monthly on the radio network on 450 radio stations.
- Received an all-expense paid to scholarship to Liberty University due to his high school evangelistic ministry with Youth for Christ by Dr. Jerry Falwell when he was 18 years old.
- In one year, visited more than 100 US cities in more than 40 different states, and preached to millions of people in person and through the media. Spoke in meetings ranging from Leavenworth Federal Penitentiary to citywide crusades. Included were businessmen's meetings, television and radio appearances, civic club engagements, and churches of all denominations.
- Thousands of people registered salvation and re-dedication decisions during nationwide and international appearances.

Evangelist-at-Large for Kansas City Youth for Christ

- Upon recognizing a spiritual gift of evangelism, founded a YFC Club at the public school previously attended. In one year, hundreds of students heard the Gospel, and more than 200 classmates found Jesus Christ as Savior.
- Joined Al Metsker's "Young Preacher Boy Club." Each week at the YFC club, gave the invitation for the youth to accept Christ. Preached 25 times a week while in high school to other Youth for Christ clubs and organizations, and logged thousands of miles on highways in Kansas, Iowa, Missouri and Nebraska.
- Spoke regularly at the Saturday night YFC rally to 1,600 teens, and as a regular camp speaker. At the time of high school graduation, spoke before mass audiences 1,000 times. At age 16, received an invitation by Al Metsker to meet Dr. Jerry Falwell.

- Asked by the Kansas City Youth for Christ's founder and Executive Director Dr. Al Metsker to be their Evangelist-at-Large, traveling the nation, proclaiming Christ while still a high school student. During 1975, spoke to more than 25,000 students on high school campuses.
